HB No. 609

Abstract: Clarifies that the crime of home invasion is a felony and adds home invasion to the list of crimes of violence.

Present law provides for penalties for the crime of home invasion to include imprisonment at hard labor for not less than five nor more than 20 years. Further provides for a sentence of imprisonment for 10 to 25 years when, at the time of the unauthorized entering, there is present in the dwelling or structure any person who is under the age of 12 years, is 65 years of age or older, or who has a developmental disability.

Proposed law retains present law except it requires that the sentence of 10 to 25 years shall be served at hard labor.

Present law provides that the following list of crimes be designated as "crimes of violence": solicitation for murder; first degree murder; second degree murder; manslaughter; aggravated battery; second degree battery; aggravated assault; mingling harmful substances; aggravated rape; forcible rape; simple rape; sexual battery; second degree sexual battery; intentional exposure to AIDS virus; aggravated kidnapping; second degree kidnapping; simple kidnapping; aggravated arson; aggravated criminal damage to property; aggravated burglary; armed robbery; first degree robbery; simple robbery; purse snatching; extortion; assault by drive-by shooting; aggravated crime against nature; carjacking; illegal use of weapons or dangerous instrumentalities; terrorism; aggravated second degree battery; aggravated assault upon a peace officer with a firearm; aggravated assault with a firearm; armed robbery; use of firearm; second degree robbery; disarming of a peace officer; stalking; second degree cruelty to juveniles; aggravated flight from an officer; aggravated incest; and battery of a police officer.

Proposed law retains present law and adds the crime of home invasion to the list of crimes of violence.
